God Saved Me in the Orient Express and I Came to America

By Elizabeth Benlian Dianovich

Xulon Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Dear reader, I wrote this book having you in mind. I was born in Sofia, Bulgaria, former Communist Bulgaria. For many years I prayed to God to get me out, but I knew my chance to leave was very slim - like one in the thousands. With the help of God my dream was fulfilled. God made me invisible in the Orient Express train and I passed the border like a suitcase. I believe God sent visible and invisible angels, during my escape, and I made it through. I lived eight years in Flushing, New York and then married to Joe Dianovich (Texan) and moved to Austin, Texas, where I have been resident for 32 years. We have two children: Jeannette and John. My testimony is reassuring; nothing is impossible with God, who can move mountains. That's what says in my gold medal-winning poem I am still climbing the mountain (this poem is printed inside this book). I am sharing my testimony and hope it will touch the hearts of many readers, and will bless many lives...
