Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Normal Herald, Vol. 24: Indiana, Pa;, July, 1919 Miss Sulis, Critic Teacher in the Training School, returns to us next fall after a leave of absence for study at Columbia University. Miss Sulis has written most enthusiastically about the work which she has done the past year. She has many plans for the new school year and Indiana will profit greatly by her renewed enthusiasm, - her new vision and splendid, new ideas. Bird Study in the Model School Students and student activities have not been the only attraction on the Normal campus this term. About seventy-four species of birds have been observed and they are constantly attracting the attention of bird lovers. Of course the English sparrow stayed with us all winter and the robins came in February. Early in the season a flock of about 200 gold finches was seen near the campus and some of these pretty little singers may be seen and heard any day. The wrens and sparrow family are old residents and much at home. Chipping sparrows, white-throated...
