Etruscan Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 145 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. YOU. In verse that is both wild and taut with controlled fire, YOU. careens through a psychic underworld of passion and imprecation where husband and wife, father and daughter, addict and rehab, self and God, join and divide. Joseph Wood s book-length screed haunts like a Rilkean summons: YOU. must change your life.You were every disease I never knew. You were each collapsing cell. You were the microscope, the telescope, the reasons why I fell into your arms, baby, like a problem. Math explains the universe . . .Joseph P. Wood has written nine works of poetry, including Broken Cage, finalist for the 2013 National Poetry Series. He teaches English at the University of Alabama-Birmingham.
