This is the fourth book in the Friends and Gems series. This book is meant to be used with two other books that can be purchased separately. The set of three contains a journal called Keeper of the Freedom for you to record your own personal freedom journey, a work of fiction called A One Year Bride; many who have read it said they were not able to put it down until they read it cover to cover and Friends and Gems Freedom which contains life changing bible studies and cooking workshops. You can use all three books together or separately and they will make a wonderful addition to your library. You will be learning wonderful truths that you can apply to your own life all the while enjoying fellowship and fun as you share your favorite recipes with your friends. Food, fellowship AND fun! What could be better than that? The book also contains an instructor s guide and can be done privately in your own home with your...
