RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 66 pages. LC Number: KF31 . L27 2005j OCLC Number: (OCOLC)61669411 Subject: Head Start programs -- Law and legislation - - United States. Excerpt: . . . mendations of the Advisory committee focused on three important areas: (1) the need to improve quality; (2) the need to expand services; and (3) the need to forge partnership with other community providers, including closer coordination with elementary schools, State, and locally sponsored programs, cooperating with the private sector and linking Head Start with other National initiatives. Reauthorizations of the Head Start Act in 1994 and 1998 enhanced teacher qualifications, increased attention to cognitive areas of development, created the Early Head Start program, and led to program standards and the Outcomes Framework that guide Head Start programs in their curriculum planning, instruction, and delivery of services, as well as in the ongoing assessment of the progress and accomplishments of children. The Head Start Improvements for School Readiness Act of 2005 builds on the original foundation of the Head Start program and on past reauthorizations, by increasing the focus on continued program quality and the achievement of important educational and other outcomes for children across the range of developmental domains critical to ensuring their school readiness. III. Legislative History and Committee Action On May 25, 2005, the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions met in executive session and favorably reported the bill with an amendment in the nature of a substitute unanimously. Hearings and testimony--summary of witnesses The Subcommittee on Education and Early Childhood Development held a hearing on April 5, 2005 at 9: 30 a. m. entitled Head Start: Ensuring Dollars Benefit the Children. The hearing focused on the Government Accountability Offices (GAO) recent report entitled Head Start: Comprehensive Approach...
