Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: . . . in the theaters, to audiences of several thousand people. The weakness of his lungs did not seem to impair the strength or clearness of his voice. His sermons seemed almost equally impressive for all classes of people, children as well as adults, unlearned as well as educated. For his knowledge and wisdom had come into his heart through his experience. I can refer to some results and ways of his sermons from his letters. After preaching at the general conference of Osaka, he says in his letter to Mrs. Boutell, concerning his sermon from the text, Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, . . . but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven (Luke 10: 20): God helped me in the preaching and many of the church members shed tears while I was preaching. Of other services he says: I preached a week ago last Sunday evening from text God is love. After the service many of the audience expressed of their impression and effects. I preached last Sunday from Romans 15: 3: For even Christ pleased not himself. Mr. Leavitt has his Bible class after our Sunday-school and has a good audience, and I interpret for him. St. Barnabas. Hospital, Osaka, Japan, February 9, 1885. Dear Mrs. Boutell, --I have been much better. The night sweat has stopped and I have gained in flesh. I preached the twenty-eighth of December the last to my people from the text, Let us labour therefore to enter...
